Located in a quiet neighbourhood south of Tarbes is this recently renovated 90m² bungalow which will appeal due to its cosy atmosphere, spacious volumes with natural light and 500m² garden.

Inside this home is a spacious living area bathed in natural light, perfect for entertaining. The kitchen is modern and fully equipped and integrates harmoniously with the 35m² living area creating an ideal space for enjoying meals with friends and family.

There are three lovely bedrooms (10m², 12m²) as well as a study which may be used as another bedroom. The 7.8m² washroom has been carefully renovated and the 1m² toilet is separate for more comfort.

The heat pump system assures a pleasant temperature all year round.

Outside, the garden has trees and invites you to relax in the leafy setting. An attached 19m² garage completes the ensemble and offers practical and secure storage space.

In total, a serene, comfortable, modern home.
